TEN PAGES

Youngstown appears perfectly willing to furnish all the candidates for county office for all parties. Nothing like grabbing at and getting away with everything possible.

Gen. Jacob S. Coxey and his army of unemployed will start from Massillon April 16 on their second march to Washington, D. C. The tourists will hardly attract as much attention as they did twenty years ago. There is just as much sense, however, in the second trip as the first one.

Former Congressman James Kennedy has not yet succeeded in convincing the other standpat candidates for congress that they should stand aside and leave the sailing clear for him. They are just selfish enough to want the honors and the pay, which is more by a long shot than most of them could make at home working full time.

Congressman John J. Whitacre declares that he is not backing ex-Gov. Judson Harmon for the democratic nomination for governor against Gov. Cox. While he appreciates the fact that Mr. Harmon made the best governor Ohio ever had he is not willing to run against him. Should no other democratic volunteer to oppose Gov. Cox for renomination there is every likelihood that Congressman Whitacre will himself be a candidate. It is certain that Gov. Cox will not be renominated without knowing he has been in a fight.

TO BE A DRY TOWN

If Azor R. Hunt, a Native of Canfield, Can Make It So.

Homestead is going to be a very dry borough if Azor R. Hunt, general manager of the Homestead Steel Works, can make it so, says the Sharon (Pa.) Telegraph. If the borough can't be made dry the greater part of it can; namely, the employees of the steel works over which Mr. Hunt has supervision, which employ from 11,000 to 12,000 men and other manufacturing plants nearby over which he has supervision. These include the Howard Axle Works at Homestead, which employ about 2,500 men, and the Carnegie blast furnaces at Rankin, where about 2,000 men are employed.

At a meeting of superintendents and foremen of the Homestead works on Thursday, Mr. Hunt announced that hereafter no employee would be allowed to drink while on duty, and that any dinners or banquets of an official nature will also be "dry," if he has anything to do with them.

It was also hinted that the employees of the mills, who drink while on duty will find a hard road to hoe in keeping their positions, irrespective of the importance of their official capacities.

Mr. Hunt was born and reared in Canfield and his host of friends here are much pleased with the stand he has taken on the temperance question.

THIRTEEN MISTAKES OF LIFE.

Here are what Presiding Judge Paul J. McCormick has announced as "Thirteen Mistakes of Life."

To attempt to set up your own standard of right and wrong.

To try and measure the enjoyment of others by your own.

To expect uniformity of opinions in this world.

To fail to make allowance for inexperience.

To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.

Not to yield in unimportant trifles.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.

Not to help everybody, wherever, however and whenever we can.

To consider anything impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.

To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.

Not to make allowances for the weaknesses of others.

To estimate by some outside quality, when it is that within which makes the man.

Prompt Delivery Service.

The Strauss-Hirschberg Co., Youngstown, makes auto delivery in Canfield and at intermediate points every Tuesday and Friday morning. People are taking advantage of this excellent service, using the telephone in placing orders. The firm has competent and obliging salespeople in charge of this department and the rapid increase in business is proof that the efforts to please are appreciated.

Rugs at Vaughns are selling for a little less money than last year. You should see them.

YOUNGSTOWN

The Mahoning County Law Library association will return to the city treasury $2,731.80, which has been paid to it illegally from fines imposed by the criminal court of Youngstown, a report filed with the state bureau of accounting by Examiner Frank A. Parmelee, declared. Payments to police officers of Youngstown, for overtime work, aggregated $2,063.96, were illegal, Mr. Parmelee says, and must be returned by the officers.

B. O. Eddy, for years court stenographer in this county, died last week in Los Angeles, Cal., where he went eight or ten years ago.

The jury in the case of policeman James Morrison, tried in common pleas court last week on charge of abetting the operation of a disorderly house, disagreed, the jury standing 11 to 1 for conviction.

The wet and dry fight is fast and furious in this city. The drys appear the most confident of winning at the polls next Monday.

Youngstown has been selected as the place for the court of appeals to sit in the northern district of the seventh circuit of Ohio. Steubenville will probably be the seat for the southern district.

Because they did not strive for an honest election.

Davis Stemple, long connected with the city sewer department, died Tuesday night, aged 64.

The local typographical union held a banquet Tuesday night in the Odd Fellows' temple and a fine time was had by the printer boys.

A general improvement is reported in business and 1914 promises to be the most prosperous year in the history of the county.

Conrad F. Brenner, one of the best known men in the city and county, died early Wednesday morning of heart trouble. He had been confined to his home for some time but it was thought his condition was improving so that the announcement of his death came as a shock to the community. Deceased was born in Columbiana county 55 years ago and came to this city when a lad. He had to begin work early, but he was full of energy and made a success of life. He was in the grocery business for years and served as county auditor as well as in many other places of honor and trust. It was Mr. Brenner who organized the Equity Savings and Loan Co. of which he was president at the time of his death. Mr. Brenner was an ardent democrat, always working for the best interests of the party. He is survived by his wife and seven children. Funeral services will be held from the family residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in Oak Hill cemetery.

The registration in this city for the local option election shows an increase of 4,700, which means, many believe, that the wet forces have been looking up every possible friend of their cause. Several arrests have been made for illegal registration and others will follow. The drys are determined that if they lose it will not be because of illegal registration.

Lois M. Shields, wife of J. Howard Shields, died Friday morning at her home on Mahoning avenue after a long illness. Last July Mrs. Shields was stricken with paralysis, from which she did not fully recover, and early this year suffered an attack of pneumonia when Bright's disease developed. Her condition had since been critical. She was a daughter of Russell and Mary Starr and was born in Canfield Feb. 1, 1845. For nearly 40 years she lived in Canfield and Boardman townships, removing to this city with her family 30 years ago. She was married to Mr. Shields Sept. 18, 1863. Four children were born to them, two of whom, Mrs. Harmon Shively of Akron and A. C. Shields of Boardman, with the husband, survive her. She also leaves two brothers, Henry and John Starr, of Boardman. Mrs. Shields was a woman of many excellent qualities and her death is sincerely mourned by a host of friends. Funeral services were held Monday morning. The remains were taken to Canfield Thursday morning and placed in the mausoleum.

FRANK STATEMENT OF HIS CANDIDACY

A. L. Wymer, Candidate for County Auditor, Gives Reasons for Asking Support.

To the Voters of Mahoning County: I am a candidate for County Auditor on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held Aug. 11, 1914.

I believe most of you know that I do not have a political boss, and that I do not believe there should be very much secrecy about public business.

If you believe my work as a County Commissioner, also as a member of the Courthouse Building Commission (for which I did not receive any pay, and for which other members of the commission received nearly $10,000 each); if you believe my experience in assisting in the general supervision of your county government, combined with my former business training, has fitted me for this office, I would be pleased to have your support.

If nominated and elected I promise that I will not become affiliated with any political boss, that I will give my entire time to the business of the office, and that all bills will be carefully audited before order is issued on treasurer for payment.

Respectfully,

A. L. WYMER.

Shoe Repairing.

Charles Credico has removed his shoe repairing shop to the residence adjoining the bank where he solicits the public patronage. Old shoes made to look like new promptly and at lowest possible cost.

OR cough cannot always be traced. It is sufficient, however, to know that you have one and ought to get rid of it. "Great oaks from little acorns grow," and too frequently the slight cough of today is the pneumonia of tomorrow.

Rexall

Cherry Juice Cough Syrup

It is the best cough insurance in the world. As a remedy for coughs, hoarseness, difficult breathing, etc., it is without a peer. It soothes and heals the inflamed throat and passages and restores the voice to its natural tone, all in a very short time. Cures the most stubborn coughs. Very pleasant to take, perfectly harmless and good for children as well as adults. Try a bottle!
